Specify desired course code (select one) 495Y1Y	496H1F	497Y1Y	498H1S	499H1Y

Note that LIN495 and LIN497 carry a weight of 1.0 credit (full course), while LIN496, LIN498, and LIN499 carry 0.5 credit (half course). LIN495, LIN497, and LIN499 are taken over the course of two terms (F+S).

Supervisor name
Short subtitle of project to be used on academic transcript (limit 70 characters, including spaces)
Provide a brief statement of your topic below. Your supervisor may require a separate, more detailed description before agreeing to work with you. Use the back of this form or attach a separate page if necessary.

Students must have completed 10.0 credits towards their degree to be eligible for a 400-level Individual Project. They must have completed at least 3.0 credits towards their LIN program of study. There is a limit of 1.0 credits of Individual Project with the same supervisor, and a limit of 2.0 total credits in LIN Individual Projects.

I have completed 10.0 credits towards my degree.   YES   NO

I have completed 3.0 credits towards my LIN program of study.   YES   NO

I have already taken   total previous credits of Individual Project with this supervisor. (enter 0 if none)

I have already taken   total previous credits of Individual Project in LIN (enter 0 if none), with the following course codes (select all that apply):

495Y1Y   496H1F   497Y1Y   498H1S   499H1Y

List the highest level course(s) taken in preparation for this Individual Project. Note that students are normally expected to have completed all available relevant courses before undertaking an Individual Project. At minimum, students should have completed the relevant 300-level course (LIN322, LIN323, LIN331, LIN341, LIN351, etc.), and ideally, also any relevant 400-level course, if available. Students should not take an Individual Project instead of a relevant 400-level course without justification (schedule conflict, not offered, etc.).

Specify method of evaluation, including dates and percentage weights to which you and your supervisor have agreed. It is recommended that there be at least one significant assignment returned before the last day to withdraw from the course. All assignments must be submitted by the final day of classes of the session. Attach a separate page if necessary.
